

BEACH RETREATS

Housekeeping Assistant (employed position)

Do you want to work by the ocean?

We're looking for a team of Housekeeping Assistants to care for our collection of beachside houses and apartments, with interiors that inspire and sea views that lift the spirits. With all our properties walking distance from the shores, our Housekeeping Assistants will work beside the ocean, with the horizon as your backdrop and the clifftops as your commute.

We are recruiting Housekeeping Assistants to work in the following beachfront locations:

- Watergate Bay
- Newquay
- Porth
- Mawgan Porth
- Hayle
- Carbis Bay
- Falmouth
- Bude
- Perranporth

You'll be invited to adopt our saltwater ethos, where the beach rules in every aspect, and this will translate through the work that you do, the properties you keep ship-shape and the beach life that beckons beyond your window.

Our Housekeeping Assistants start work with everything taken care of, including full, Covid-secure training and all cleaning materials provided. You'll need to be confident in working under your own supervision as well as part of a team and must be able to make your own way to properties, ideally able to drive and have your own transport.

Our owners trust us to look after their property, keeping things spotless and of the highest standard for our guests to enjoy. You'll be at the forefront of delivering these standards as part of a modern, progressive and reputable business. You'll feel proud of the place you work and the job you do.

The details:

- Full, professional training
- Employed role in a supportive team, with paid holidays and excellent job perks.

- Detailed COVID-secure procedures – we are VisitEngland and AA COVID-19 Confident registered.
- £13 per hour.
- Shifts available throughout the week and weekend shifts.

About us

Here at Beach Retreats, we live for the feeling being footsteps from the right beach can bring. We manage an ever-growing portfolio of premium properties, all less than a mile from the beach. With 228 properties and counting on our books, we are one of Cornwall's leading independent letting agencies. We know the coastline and industry inside out and our belief in the power of beach living is as strong now as it was when we started 12 years ago.

We value our people, our lifestyle and our team spirit, always ensuring that our work culture is supportive and warm through-and-through. You'll be working alongside a great network of teammates and will be equipped with everything you need to carry out your role. You'll also be working for an ever-expanding and successful company, with opportunities to grow and progress with the business.

We're part of the Watergate Bay Hotel group where active relaxation runs deep, not just with our guests but with our staff too. We offer perks such as free surf lessons and hire from Extreme Academy and discounted stays in the hotel, so that you can be part of our active lifestyle.

Join us in a new job role by the shore, the place where work and play meet.

Job Type: Part-time

Salary: £13.00 per hour
